

MORE THAN JUST A FORECAST:

What Ohio's climate trends mean for you

From heavier rains to hotter summers and shifting seasons, our new climate is already shaping life in Akron.

Join Kathleen Biggins, Founder of C-Change Conversations, for a thoughtful, nonpartisan discussion on what's happening and how we can be better stewards. This engaging, fact-based presentation connects climate science to the issues people care about most without alarmism or political framing.

Praised by civic, faith, and community groups nationwide, the C-Change Primer has reached more than 24,000 people in 34 states and internationally.
