

Art Blooms 2026 Color Abounds

September 23, 11 am to 7 pm
A Garden Club of America flower show
Presented by Akron Garden Club
In partnership with Akron Art Museum
One South High Street, Akron

- 16 spectacular, highly artistic floral designs inspired by artworks on exhibition, arrayed throughout the galleries
- Scores of prized plants, container gardens, and horticultural cut specimens
- Two dozen nature photographs of fine-art quality
- Eight exquisite cuff bracelets and bento boxes, hand-embellished entirely with dried botanical material
- An educational exhibit about the native plant garden in Summit Metro Parks' newest park

A special hands-on art installation, CHIAOZZA!, will be on exhibition concurrently, with works created in residence by Adam Frezza and Terri Chiao, an American duo exploring play and craft across a range of media, inspired by nature's vibrant hues and organic forms.

Entries open to members of Garden Club of America clubs.
 Flower show schedule, registration forms, and further information at www.akrongardenclub.org.

Open to the Public
 Standard Museum Admission Fees Apply

Photo: Joe Levack

